FARMING

With direct access to salmon farms in Norway, Faeröer, Iceland and Scotland, which are situated within ideal distance of Neerlandia-Urk's production facility. From there, the salmon can be distributed throughout the whole of Europe by road quickly.

SUSTAINABILITY

Atlantic salmon comes from farms that maintain high standards in environmentally and socially responsible aquaculture management. It ensures the minimization of environmental impact.

Aqua culture from Norway,
Faeröer, Iceland and Scotland.
